General Business

- Bowling shirts are now available, see Greg if you haven't picked yours up yet.
- New L & P plate laws in Victoria will ban these drivers from V8's. It has been suggested a letter should be drafted and sent pointing out the illogical blanket banning, comparing a side valve V8 street rod to a VN commodore.
- VACC has highlighted the increase in number plate thefts, which are used in 50% of fuel theft drive offs from petrol stations. They have asked their members to provide a free service of fitting one way screws to number plates. See Frank for these. If you report your number plates stolen Vic roads will scrub them from the system and you won't be able to have them replaced (no good if they were personalised or original black and white's)
- Phil McNally won the raffle.
